

Impact Report 2024/25

Scottish Huntington's Association is committed to continuous improvement and transparency to ensure it meets the needs of the Huntington's community and the requirements of employees, supporters, regulators, and funding partners. These results are from client and staff surveys carried out in 2024/25.

1

Scottish Huntington's Association is the ONLY organisation in Scotland providing the specialist Huntington's services families need

600+

Medical, health and social care workers trained by our specialist staff

900+

Families accessing our HD Specialists, Youth Service and Financial Wellbeing Officers

What families say about our work

83% are better able to manage symptoms with support from our services

96% have more understanding about the disease

87% know more about their rights and benefits

85% say their mental health and wellbeing is improved

89% say life is better with our support

88% have more resilience

89% feel less isolated and lonely

Client survey 2025*

3

Volunteer-led Branches that provide vital fundraising, support, and friendship for Huntington's families

What our employees say

100% back our mission to improve Huntington's care for families

97% are proud to work for Scottish Huntington's Association

100% say our teams work well together to support families

Staff survey 2025*

Contact sha-admin@hdscotland.org